

Monday 4th March 2019
National Major Trauma Nursing Programme ED/Trauma

09:00 09:40	NMTNG UPDATE- Where we are now and where we are going .	Rob Pinate – Chair NMTNG
09:40 10:20	USA view on trauma nursing- rotational posts across the patient Pathway.	Justin Mis – Trauma Programme Coordinator Cook County Health and Hospital System
10:20 11:00	Calling it out with Compassion – Civility Saves lives	Dr Chris Turner – Civility Saves Lives/ED consultant UHCW @orangedis or @civilitysaveslives
11:00 11:30	COFFEE
11:30 – 12:15	“You just need people who know trauma” – Nurse Led Major Trauma Ward	Stuart Wildman – Nurse Consultant Major Trauma
12:15 – 12:30	NMTNG- Adult Ward Group Update	Stuart Wildman – Nurse Consultant Major Trauma
12:30- 13:00	Trauma Care After Resuscitation Course	Rebecca Boxhall – Trauma Nurse Coordinator Royal London Hospital
13:00 14:00	LUNCH
14:00 14:45	More than a trauma coordinator – setting up follow up clinics for major trauma patients	Emma Tabenor – Senior Major Trauma Practitioner – University Hospital Southampton
14:45 15:30	NMTNG – Critical Care update	Critical Care group NMTNG Chair
15:30 16:00	COFFEE
16:00 16:45	What is a Resus Trauma Practitioner? And – Update on Perioperative NMTNG group	Jay Stacey – Resuscitation Trauma Practitioner UHCW NHS Trust & Vice-chair Perioperative Group NMTNG
16:45 17:30	Plenary Session	