

Tuesday 5th March 2019

PHEM/HEMS Programme

| | | |
|----------------|---|--|
| 09:00 09:40 | Mechanism of injury: implications of new car design | Dr Gareth Davies, London's Air Ambulance |
| 09:40 10:20 | Field amputation | Professor Sir Keith Porter, Univeristy Hospital Birmingham |
| 10:20 10:50 | COFFEE | |
| 10:50 11:30 | Mental Resilience - London Bridge | Mr Keir Rutherford, Advanced Paramedic Pracitioner, London Ambulance Service |
| 11:30 12:20 | HEMS Organisation Leadership - how we do it | Mrs Jane Gurney, CEO, Essex and Herts Air Ambulance Trust |
| 12:20 13:20 | Lunch | |
| 13:20 14:00 | Learning after death | Professor Guy Ruty, Chief Forensic Pathologist East Midlands, |
| 14:10 14:50 | Prehospital fracture dislocation and reduction | Dr Aswin Vasireddy, Orthopaedic Registrar Kings Hospital London, HEMS Doctor EHAAT |
| 14:50 15:20 | COFFEE | |
| 15:20 15:30 | Sucessful Mentorship in PHEM/HEMS Systems | Dr Adam Chesters, A&E Consultant Addenbooke's hospital, London's Air Ambulance |
| 16:00 16:40 | PHEM delivery in France | Matt Beardmore, HEMS Doctor, Midlands Air Ambulance |
| 16:45 17:30 | Plenary Session | |