

Tuesday 5th March 2019
Paediatric Trauma Programme

09:00	Adolescent Trauma in the UK: What does TARN data show?	Dr Stephen Mullen; Consultant in Paediatric Emergency Medicine; Royal Belfast Hospital for Sick Children
09:50	Paediatric Blast Injuries	Dr Paul Reavley; Consultant in Paediatric Emergency Medicine; Bristol Royal Hospital for Children
10:40	COFFEE
11:10	Adolescent Trauma in the UK: What does TARN data show?	Dr Stephen Mullen; Consultant in Paediatric Emergency Medicine; Royal Belfast Hospital for Sick Children
11:50	Paediatric Blast Injuries	Dr Paul Reavley; Consultant in Paediatric Emergency Medicine; Bristol Royal Hospital for Children
12:40	LUNCH
13:40	Penetrating trauma in children and adolescents	Mr Martin Griffiths; Lead trauma surgeon; Royal London Hospital
14:30	Violence reduction following stabbing	St Giles Trust
15:10	COFFEE
15:40	Preparing the Team: Simulating Paediatric Major Trauma	Dr Rachel Sunley; Consultant in Paediatric Emergency Medicine; Bristol Royal Hospital for Children
16:10	Paediatric lower limb trauma: recognition and management	Mr James Barnes; Consultant in Orthopaedic Surgery; Bristol Royal Hospital for Children
16:45	Plenary
17:30		