

Monday 4th March 2019
Theatre practitioners Programme

09:00 09:40	Airway management in trauma patients and management of the traumatised airway – different challenges	Professor David Lockey Consultant in Anaesthesia, ICM and Pre-hospital Care, University Hospitals Bristol, London's Air Ambulance and EMRTS Cymru.
09:40 10:20	Small teams working in high pressure environments – the human factors essentials	Professor Chris Frerk Consultant in Anaesthesia, Northampton General Hospital and Founding member of the Clinical Human Factors Group. @chrisferk
10:20 10:50	COFFEE
10:50 11:30	Trauma care update & blood product resuscitation – what should we be doing?	Dr James Chinery Consultant in Anaesthesia and Pre-Hospital Emergency Medicine, Royal Stoke University Hospital and EMRTS Cymru.
11:30 12:20	Learning from recent major incidents – what all healthcare professionals need to know	Dr Julia Weatherill Consultant in Emergency Medicine & Major Incident Lead, Northampton General Hospital
12:20 13:20	Lunch
13:20 14:00	Damage control surgery in trauma units – maintaining essential skills for a relatively rare event	Mr Charles Docker Consultant Surgeon and Clinical Lead – Trauma and Orthopaedics, Worcestershire Acute Hospitals NHS Trust
14:10 14:50	Challenges of trauma patients in CT and IR suites – a different perspective	Natalie Ruane & David Parker Radiographers, University Hospitals Birmingham
14:50 15:20	COFFEE
15:20 15:30	How simulation can be used to prepare teams and test systems	Karen Johns Lead Simulation Trainer QEHB.
16:00 16:40	Learning from military allied health professionals - the MERT, CCAST & Headley Court experience	Dr Rhodri Phillips Clinical Director, Headley Court & Military AHP's from CCAST and MERT
16:45 17:30	Plenary Session	